

Hello Joe -

I searched the CIS Index (Congressional Information Service Index), which indexes all congressional documents, including hearings (published and unpublished), and found the attached citations that matched your subject. These two citations refer to a collision that apparently occurred in the 1920's. I did not find any references to an investigation relating to the 1967 attack on the USS Liberty.

Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

By way of brief introduction I was a member of the crew of the USS Liberty when the ship was attacked on June 8, 1967.

My question is simple -- has the United States Senate ever conducted an investigation of the attack on the USS Liberty?

Warmest regards,

Joe Meadors
